Mission and History

The mission of Historic Charlotte is to promote historic preservation in the greater Charlotte region. Historic Charlotte collaborates with history and heritage groups, local schools and universities, and city and county government agencies to educate and advocate for historic preservation.

Historic Charlotte is a not-for-profit organization established in 1991 as the Charlotte Mecklenburg Historic Preservation Foundation, the charitable affiliate of the Historic Landmarks Commission.

What We Do

Historic Charlotte is dedicated to education and advocacy for history and preservation in the Charlotte region. We present history programs, lectures, and neighborhood tours. We promote awareness and appreciation of historic sites and neighborhoods. We help to preserve historic properties in partnership with the Historic Landmarks Commission, as well as with business and home owners.
